

Important Information on Chase Identity ProtectionSM

Chase Identity Protection is available to you at no cost for one year. To activate your membership please complete the Chase Identity Protection enrollment form below and return in the envelope provided. Your Welcome Kit will arrive in the mail within three weeks of when you return your enrollment form. Please know in order to activate your membership, your signature and Social Security Number are required. In addition, we will not automatically bill or renew your membership at the expiration of your one-year complimentary membership without your permission.

By activating your Chase Identity Protection membership you will receive the following:

- Continuous Credit Monitoring: Your credit files at all three major reporting agencies will be monitored daily, and you will also be notified of any changes that occur within your credit files.
- Credit Reports and Scores: You'll have access to your Experian credit report and credit score. In addition, you can even request access to your 3-in-1 credit reports from all three major credit reporting agencies and scores based on those reports, in one easy-to-read format.
- Personal Assistance: You'll get the help you need disputing inaccuracies on your credit files through a one call facilitation process. All you have to do is contact Chase Identity Protection and they will submit your disputes to the credit reporting agencies on your behalf. Also, if you suspect or become a victim of identity theft, contact them immediately and you'll receive a dedicated Fraud Specialist who will help you reclaim your identity.
- Identity Fraud Expense Reimbursement Coverage: You may even be reimbursed for up to $100,000 for any eligible identity theft related expenses that you may incur, paid for by Chase.*

*Identity Fraud Expense Reimbursement Master Policy is underwritten by Travelers Casualty and Surety Company of America and its property casualty affiliates, Hartford, CT 06183. Coverage for all claims or losses depends on actual policy provisions. Availability of coverage can depend on our underwriting qualifications and state regulations.
