On December 1, 2006, a Diocese of Brooklyn vendor, Towers Perrin, learned that laptops containing personal information belonging to its clients had been stolen from its offices. One of the laptops contained personal information, including names and social security numbers of Diocese of Brooklyn employees and former employees. The laptop was not encrypted, but the laptop and the email program were separately password protected. We have no information indicating that personal data has been misused. Towers Perrin reported the theft to the New York City Police Department (Mid-Town South Precinct) on December 7, 2006. The police report number is 2006-014-17855. Subsequently, the District Attorney's Office for the County of New York requested that notification to affected individuals be delayed until January 5, 2007. Attached is a copy of the notice to affected individuals.

RE: IMPORTANT NOTICE

Dear

We are writing to let you know that we recently learned that laptops containing information about you were stolen from Towers Perrin, a company that provides management consulting services to the Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn Pension Plan. To perform its services, Towers Perrin had access to some of your personal information, including your name and Social Security number, which was on the stolen laptops. Towers Perrin promptly reported the theft to law enforcement, which subsequently requested that we delay this notification until January 2007 to avoid any possible impediment to their investigation.

We deeply regret that this situation occurred and are keenly aware of how important your personal information is to you. Towers Perrin has indicated that there is no reason to believe that this information has been misused. Even so, we want to inform you of the situation and suggest some steps you can take to protect yourself from identity theft now and in the future.

Precautions You Can Take

Although we have no knowledge of any misuse of your information, we have arranged for you to enroll, at your option, in the Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold with 3-in-1 credit monitoring product at no cost to you for one year. The product will provide you with an early warning system for changes to your credit file and help you to understand the content of your credit file at the three credit reporting agencies.

To enroll in this product, go to Equifax's website at www.myservices.equifax.com/tri and complete the enrollment process. During the "check out" process, provide the following promotional code: «CODE» in the "Enter Promotion Code" box. Alternately, you may enroll in the U.S. Mail version of the product by completing and sending the enclosed form by mail or via fax to Equifax at the phone number or address shown on the form.

Once you have enrolled, the Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold with 3-in-1 credit monitoring product will provide you with several valuable services including:

- Credit file monitoring of your Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion credit reports;
