Please be advised that we have recently been made aware that one of our computers, containing some of our employees' personal information (social security numbers, addresses, etc.), may have come into the possession of an unauthorized third party. In accordance with the New York State Information Security Breach and Notification Act, we are required to send this notification to all of our employees. For more information about this law, please refer to http://www.oag.state.ny.us/consumer/tips/id_theft_law.html.

We advise you to take whatever protective measures are necessary to shield you from the threat of identity theft, including but not limited to notifying your financial institutions to be on alert for suspicious charges on your accounts.

Lastly, please refer all questions and comments to the Attorney General's office of consumer affairs at 1(800)771-7755, not to Air India, Ltd., as the Attorney General's Office will be much better equipped to answer said questions.

Thank you for your cooperation.
